Rheolog glassware and accessories: the purity of crystal

Mouth-blown and created by jünger kühn, the Rheolog glasses and accessories combine artisanal finesse with durability. Suitable for both everyday use and celebrations, they enhance every drink - from the morning orange juice to the champagne of special occasions.

Soft collection: the gentleness of a gift

Items from the Soft collection embody the essence of linen, cotton, and superior-quality wool and are certified according to the OEKO-TEX® STANDARD 100*. Now available in a new sensorial brown shade, the Soft collection's kitchen textiles, clothing, and kimonos are sure to become indispensable in daily life.

Thea insulated bottle: Scandinavian sobriety

Ferriani Sbolgi also signs this double-walled stainless-steel thermos, ideal for keeping drinks hot or cold. Coated with a powder finish in a minimalist style, it transforms an everyday essential into a durable and elegant gift, true to BOLIA's Scandinavian spirit.

Baia vases: timeless and elegant

Designed by the Ferriani Sbolgi studio and crafted from high-quality glass, the Baia vases embody the sophistication of grand festive tables. Their rippled texture creates a striking visual effect, while their fine lines and varied sizes allow them to find their natural place in any interior.

Sao Lamp: luminous simplicity

Created by the Danish studio MADE SPECIFIC, the Sao lamp diffuses an enveloping light, ideal both for moments of conviviality and festive occasions. Its pure silhouette gradually reveals subtle artisanal details, making it a gift as poetic as it is functional.

Sedo care series: a ritual of well-being

Inspired by the Latin word calm, the Sedo series invites you to give yourself - or someone else - a moment of softness. Created by the BOLIA Design Team, it brings together hand cream, soap, and lotion, as well as a diffuser and scented spray. Its delicate compositions come in two olfactory worlds: Nordic Coast and Warm Sand.
