The Cosima Armchair

An inviting extension

The Cosima series captures the very essence of lounge living. As a natural extension of the bestselling Cosima sofa and sofa bed, the Cosima armchair now invites you to unwind with its generous armrests, low backrest, and deep, embracing seat. A new release introduced as part of BOLIA's Spring–Summer 2025 collection.

Designed by the German duo kaschkasch, the Cosima armchair stands out with its enveloping comfort and bold character. Conceived for moments of reading, contemplation, and rest, it fits effortlessly into private interiors as well as hotel lounges and workspace environments.

Customised for you

Cosima is available in more than 150 fabric options with varied textures: from cozy bouclé to structured linen. These refined finishes enhance the armchair's comfort while highlighting the purity of its lines. Each upholstery option brings with it a uniqueness, allowing Cosima to adapt to any interior.

Built to last

Crafted from FSC®-certified wood, the Cosima armchair reflects BOLIA's commitment to responsible design. Its feather-and-down filling ensures enduring comfort, while its changeable covers combine durability with easy maintenance – perfect for adapting to evolving styles and trends.

This is a piece made to stand the test of time without compromising on comfort or design.

Inspired by simplicity

Guided by a constant quest for simplicity and balance, German design duo kaschkasch creates objects that are intuitive, functional, and quietly poetic. Their stripped-down, essential approach draws inspiration from the everyday – from the flow of light and gentle curve of a shadow to a shared laughter. To them, true design is meaningful and timeless.
