A new chapter in sculptural seating

BOLIA introduces two new sculptural pieces to the Mielo series by Danish designer Charlotte Hønlcke: a sofa and bench that expand the collection's serene, organic aesthetic.

Echoing the signature curves and soft volumes of the original Mielo armchair, these additions bring a refined presence to modern interiors.

Elegant curves & character

Designed with a focus on comfort and character, the Mielo sofa and bench feature reversible seat cushions, thoughtful proportions, and a gentle, inviting expression. Their generous forms strike a careful balance between statement and subtlety — ideal for living rooms, bedrooms, hallways, or hospitality spaces seeking both elegance and ease.

Honest materials

Each piece is crafted with FSC®-certified wood, selected for its enduring strength and quality. With a choice of 161 upholstery options and available in both 2.5- and 3-seater sizes, the new Mielo designs are tailored for versatility and personalisation.

Crafted with integrity

All designs in the series are handcrafted in Poland by Actona Sp. z o.o., a manufacturer known for its high production standards and ISO 9001-certified quality management — a testament to BOLIA's commitment to refined craftsmanship and thoughtful design.
